

Brandenburg

At a glance

Capital:	Potsdam
Area:	29,482 km ²
Population:	2,5 m.
GDP per capita:	22,051 EUR

Location
(Neighbouring states/EU-countries):

the German capital region Berlin-Brandenburg is centrally located within Europe; neighbouring states: Mecklenburg-Hither Pomerania, Saxony-Anhalt, Saxony; neighbouring country: Poland

Key industries: automotive, aeronautical technology, rail transport technology, energy, logistics, food industry, geo-information industry, media, optics, chemistry, metal

Number of employees in logistics: 180,000

Logistics Solutions

Important logistics hubs and functions:

- east-west and north-south traffic hub
- leading freight villages in Europe
- dense network of transshipment points for combined traffic (rail, waterway, road)
- dense network of freight centres
- the region provides all four traffic carriers and is connected to the European traffic corridors

Lighthouse:

Renowned logistics firms with a wide range of services and specific solutions for various industries are located in the area. Some examples are DB Schenker, Kühne & Nagel, DPD, UPS, Panalpina, GEFCO, Rhenus and Zalando.

This region has developed expertise in seaport hinterland traffic, for example with the sites Falkenberg (BLG Railtec GmbH-Automotive), Schwarzheide (BASF chemistry logistics), the freight village Berlin South, Großbeeren (firm: Fiege textile logistics), Wittenberge with a public inland port, logistics hub Wustermark with freight village, inland port, KV-terminal and railway yard.